The authorized capital of Da Afghanistan Bank shall be Eight Billion Afghanis, or such an amount as shall be recommended by an independent inquiry into the assets and the liabilities of Da Afghanistan Bank pursuant to Article(130), or such higher amount as shall result from allocations from net profits pursuant to Article 29.
2. The capital of Da Afghanistan Bank shall be held solely by the State, and shall not be transferable or subject to encumbrance.

Article 28. Calculation of net profit or net loss of Da Afghanistan Bank

For each financial year, the net profit or the net loss of Da Afghanistan Bank shall be calculated in accordance with International Accounting Standards as the sum of net operating revenues or losses (including realized gains and losses) and net unrealized valuation gains or losses, and after making provision:

- a. for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets, and contributions to the staff retirement fund; and
- b. subject to the approval of the Minister of Finance, for such other purposes as Da Afghanistan Bank may deem necessary.

Article 29. Allocation of net profit of Da Afghanistan Bank

1. If Da Afghanistan Bank has a net profit for any financial year, the net profit shall be allocated and used in the following order of priority:

- a. an allocation from net profit shall be made to the capital account of Da Afghanistan Bank in such amount as shall be required to increase the authorized capital of Da Afghanistan Bank to a level equivalent to five percent of the aggregate amount of monetary liabilities shown on the balance sheet of Da Afghanistan Bank for the end of that financial year;
- b. an allocation from net profit shall be made to redeem the securities issued by the State to Da Afghanistan Bank pursuant to Article 31 and held by Da Afghanistan Bank;

- c. an allocation from net profit shall be made to the General Reserve maintained by Da Afghanistan Bank in such amount as shall be required to increase the amount of the General Reserve to a level equivalent to the amount of the authorized capital of Da Afghanistan Bank; the General Reserve may only be used to offset losses of Da Afghanistan Bank;
- d. an allocation from net profit shall be made to any other reserve for specific purposes established by Da Afghanistan Bank subject to the approval of the Minister of Finance; and
- e. any residual net profit remaining after the preceding allocations shall be allocated in accordance with the following: the preceding allocations from net profit shall be calculated as if made entirely from net operating revenues, except that, if no operating revenues are included in net profit or after the preceding allocations have exhausted net operating revenues included in net profit, such allocations shall be calculated as if made from net unrealized valuation gains; residual net operating revenues if any shall be distributed to the State within four months after the end of the financial year, and residual net unrealized valuation gains if any shall be allocated to a Valuation Reserve Account maintained on the balance sheet of Da Afghanistan Bank.

2. For the purposes of this Law, the aggregate amount of the monetary liabilities of Da Afghanistan Bank shall be at any time the sum of:

- (A) all outstanding banknotes, coins and debt securities issued by Da Afghanistan Bank; and
- (B) the credit balances of all accounts maintained on the books of Da Afghanistan Bank by account holders.

Article 30. Allocation of net loss of Da Afghanistan Bank

If Da Afghanistan Bank incurs a net loss for any financial year, the net loss shall be allocated as follows:

- a. if the net loss is composed of net operating losses and net unrealized valuation losses, the amount of net operating losses shall be charged to the general reserve or to capital in that order, and the amount of net unrealized valuation losses shall be allocated to the Valuation Reserve Account or, to the extent that the balance of the Valuation Reserve Account would be negative as a result of such allocation, to the general reserve or to capital in that order;
- b. if the net loss is the sum of net operating revenues and greater net unrealized valuation losses, the net loss shall be allocated to the Valuation Reserve Account or, to the extent that the balance of the Valuation Reserve Account would be negative as a result of such allocation, to the general reserve or to capital in that order; or
- c. if the net loss is the sum of a net operating loss and smaller net unrealized valuation gains, the net loss shall be charged to the general reserve or to capital in that order.

Article 31. Coverage of shortfalls in capital of Da Afghanistan Bank

- 1. This article applies whenever for Da Afghanistan Bank:
 - a. on one of its monthly pro forma balance sheets prepared pursuant to Article 74 the value of its assets falls below the sum of its liabilities and unimpaired authorized capital, or
 - b. its net profit for any financial year is insufficient to increase its authorized capital to the level prescribed in this act.

2. If the circumstances outlined in paragraph 1 occur, and:

a. if the last official measure of the annual inflation rate is within the band of 3% to 20% , the Minister of Finance shall, within one month after submission of that balance sheet to him, deliver to Da Afghanistan Bank marketable debt securities, denominated and payable in afghanis, issued by the State and bearing interest at market rates, in such amount or amounts as shall be necessary to remedy this deficit. This inflation band shall be re-evaluated every three years.

b. if the last official measure of the annual inflation rate is not within the band of 3% to 20% , the Minister of Finance shall first seek an appropriation under the government's budget and appropriation process. If the appropriation is not approved, then the Minister of Finance shall, notwithstanding public expenditure legislation to the contrary, within one month after submission of that balance sheet to him, deliver to Da Afghanistan Bank marketable debt securities, denominated and payable in afghanis, issued by the State and bearing interest at market rates, in such amount or amounts as shall be necessary to remedy this deficit.
